Waiver and Release Statement: I agree to comply with the rules, regulations, and instructions of the APIL Run For Justice. I attest that I am medically able and properly trained for participation. I am aware of and assume any and all risks associated with participating in this event, including, but not limited to injuries and fatalities associated with falls, contact with other participants, weather (heat, humidity, wind, rain, or other weather), and traffic and road conditions. In consideration for acceptance of this entry, I, for myself and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive, release, and discharge the Advocates for Public Interest Law ("APIL") student organization and Community Board, their affiliates, the William S. Richardson School of Law, the University of Hawai'i, or their employees, sponsors, agents, volunteers, and organizers or representatives of this event or anyone acting on their behalf from any and all claim of liability for property damage or death or injuries suffered by me in this event, of any kind or nature whatsoever, arising out of or in the course of my participation in this event, including pre- and post-race activities. If I am an Operator or Occupant of a Stroller or Assisted Wheelchair, I agree that I am fully responsible for my own safety and the safety of the occupant of the stroller or assisted wheelchair. (Safety is defined as doing everything reasonably necessary to avoid or prevent an accident including, but not limited to, operation with safe speed and equipment and avoiding risks.) Although APIL is a Registered Independent Organization ("RIO") and has members who are University of Hawai'i-Mānoa students, faculty, or employees, the RIO is independent of the University, which is not responsible for the RIO's contracts, acts, or omissions. I give permission for free-use of my name, voice, or photo in any broadcast, telecast, or advertisement, for any purpose. I also consent to permit emergency treatment in the event of injury or illness. This release and waiver extends to all claims of every kind or nature whatsoever, foreseen or unforeseen, known or unknown. In the event this race cannot be held as scheduled due to an act of God or circumstances beyond control, the race is not liable to refund any money donated by me to participate.
